

Hymn 630

(nr. 12 in selectiebundel)

The musical notation consists of three staves, each with five horizontal lines. Vertical dashed lines divide the staves into measures. Black dots on the lines indicate pitch and rhythm. The lyrics are aligned with the notes:

What foolish worms
are we!
How prone
to start
a side,
And in
our troubles flee
From Jesus' wounded side;
To wait
on self,
or some-
thing base,
Instead of
trusting sovereign
grace!
